

This station is very important to our local community because it is the only Christian station in our area. I am so relieved that I do not have to channel surf to find something wholesome. My teenage daughter even listens and that makes it an important choice for all ages.